

Tolorio.

The Colorid IS THE WANT DIRECTORY.

Anteres or the Continue of the "WANTS" Printed This Year, 644,89 Which Is About an Many as Combined Contained.

Every RESULT Has a CAUSE.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1888.

PRICE ONE CENT.

MORE RACE RIOTS.

Tackett's Mills, Va., the Scene of a General Melee.

An Outbreak in Mississippi Similar to the One at Wahalak.

Conflict Between Whites and Blacks Expected Every Hour.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Dec. 27.—The town is in much excitement over a report which reached here this morning of a riot at Tackett's Mills in Stafford County, Va., between a number of whites and blacks.

They gathered in a country store on Christmas afternoon, and advices say that a dispute arose between the white and colored men on questions concerning the late elec-

A few of the whites and all the colored men present contended that Stafford was fairly Republican. The remaining whites held up for the Democratic party in that county.

A white man by the name of Bennett Hiflen and a colored man participated in the wrangle, and finally brought up some matter about a plough, personal to themselves, and soon got to blows.

A general riot followed, during which Hiffin, the white man, was shot and in-

A general riot followed, during which Hiffin, the white man, was shot and instantly killed. The negro, though badly mutilated, lived several minutes.

Many others were badly wounded in the fight, guns, sticks and rocks being freely used in the afray.

Tacket's Mills is some twenty miles from this city and about equally distant from any point of public travel. In that portion of the country the whites predominate in numbers and are Democratic in politics.

Much excitement prevails in the county over the affair, and additional trouble as to the color line is likely to follow.

The officers of the law have made efforts to restore order and arrest the guilty parties.

The officers of the law have made enors to restore order and arrest the guilty parties.

W. S. White, the attorney for the Commonwealth for that county whose office is in this cir. left for the scene of the riot to investigate the matter.

NOTHER RACE WAR IN MISSISSIPPI. ews of a Conflict Hourly Expected-

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WOBLD.]

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 27.-There is great excitement here over the reports from Lamar. Miss., which state that another race war is in progress there. News of a pitched battle hourly expected.

Last evening a telegram was received in his city from Lamar, ordering the immediate shipment of twenty-five Winchester rifles to that point, the plan being to coulp the white natives against an uprising of the blacks. The telegram also stated that five negroes and two whites had already fallen negroes and two whites had already fallen victims in the earliest encounter, and that the blacks were showing most determined hostility and gathering in a body from all surrounding parts of the county.

The arms were promptly forwarded, and, as Lamar is but sixty miles off, have no doubt been delivered this morning. There is wild excitement here all along the line of the Illinois and Mississippi Central road, and whites are flocking to Lamar from many bints on the route.

and whites are flocking to Lamar from many pints on the route.

The trouble began near Lamar in the same way as at Wahalak, by a quarrel between wo men, only in the present case the white nan struck the first blow. A negro made se of very insulting language, and the white nan promptly knocked him down. Other nan promptly knocked him down. Other bolored men who saw the affray sided with the negro, and would have killed the white man had not some of his friends arrived in time for a rescue.

time for a rescue.

On the appearance of the whites the negroe fled the town and in a patch of woods on the outskirts called a halt and held a consulta-tion. It was decided to send messengers to all the negroes in the vicinity, calling upon them to at once join them. The whites, bearing of this action, also began organizing, and in a short time had collected a strong The negroes will receive a warm re-a should they decide to make a descent

BLOODED STOCK KNOCKED DOWN.

Ten Thousand-Dollar Colts and Fillies fro Miller's and Kelly's Stables.

Buyers and lovers of horses were attracted to Madison Square Garden in large numbers this morning by an important sale of horse From Miller's and Kelly's stables. Some very good prices were obtained, and the following were the principal sales:

Chestnut coit Alan Arthur, two-year-old, to J. P. Morrison for $2,100.
Two-year-old chestnut coit G. T. Boyden, to Edward Bacon for $10,000.
Two-year-old chestnut filly Lady Archer to a Mr. Ashpecton for $10,000.
Thomas coit, sired by King Dan, chestnut two-year-old, to David Gideon for $500. This sale was transferred subsequently to Walter Rawlings.

Two-year-old chestnut filly Miss Thomas to J.

M. Jeffcote, for $800. Two-year-old bay filly Julia Doyle to D. Kahn, for $250.

Knocked the Policeman Down.

Policeman Bartley, of the West Fortieth Street station, told Edward Fitzsimmons, of 772 Washington street, to move on from the ruer of Thirteenth avenue and Twentyhird street at 1 o'clock this morning. Fitzhird street at 1 o'clock this morning. Fitz-immons did not move on, but struck the ficer in the face, throwing him down. When tzsimmons had succeeded in tearing the hiform of the policeman to such an extent hat he was unpresentable, two other offi-ers arrived and the belligerent was locked b. Justice Duffy held Fitzsimmons in 1.000 bail for trial at the Jefferson Market folice Court.

hey "Swore Like Our Army in Flanders" hey "Swere Like Our Army in Flanders" hay be said of many sufferers from biliousness, scadache, constipation, indigestion and their caultant irritability, intellectual singgishness, annu, &c. The temptation to thus violate a acred commandment, however, is specify and ermanently removed by the use of Du. Pirnor's "LEASANT PELLETS—tiny, little sugar-coated inti-bihous granules; nothing like them. One dose. Druggists.

"PERIODICALS."

No News of Him Received To-Esy-Much Surprise Felt at His Resignatiles from the Brooklyn Force—He Had I vid Off His Men Just Before He Disappeared-His Third Departure.

No tidings have yet been received as to the whereabouts of Police Capt. Henry L. Jewett, of the Ninth Precinct, Brooklyn, who mysteriously disappeared on Monday afternoon, after having resigned his position on the force.

His friends and relatives are anxious about him, as those who saw him last all agree that the ex-Captain was not drunk, and it is feared that he may have become temporarily insane His disappearance is strange. He left the police station about 10 o'clock Monday morning, and as far as is known went direct to Police Headquarters. There he saw Supt. Campbell and received a check for something like $4,000 with which to pay the salaries of the men in his precinct

He went to the bank and cashed the check and then returned to the station-house, arriving there about 11.30. He then began paying off, and finished about 1, 30 o'clock off, and finished about 1.30 o'clock.

All who saw him on that day unite in saying that he did not appear as if he had been drinking or did not do anything that would be looked at as strange.

He went in his office and wrote a letter. He then put on his hat and coat and as he passed the Sergeant's deak he laid down a letter, requesting that it be sent to Supt. Campbell at once.

H; then left the station-house, and nothing has since been seen or heard of him. The has since been seen or heard of him. The letter which was sent to the Superintendent was as follows:

Dec. 24, 1888, To Hon, James D. Bell, Commissioner of Police: I hereby resign. Respectfully, Hunny L. Juwett.

This was a great surprise to the Superintendent, as the Captain had said nothing at the morning conference of any intention to resign.

A message was sent to the house asking whether the Captain had gone home, and when an answer came that he had not, it dawned upon those around the Central Office that Capt. Jeweth had gone off on one of his 'periodicals,' for this is not the first time that the Captain has put his friends in a fever of excitement over his mysterious actions.

Less than two years ago, while in command of the Tenth Precinct, he disappeared and was gone for over ten days.

Detectives were sent in search of him, and he was finally found wandering around the streets of Hoboken, whither he had gone from Jersey City.

streets of Hoboken, whither he had gone from Jersey City.

He was helplessly drunk and was in a deplorable condition.

He was taken home, and while getting over his adventure said that he thought somebody was trying to break up his family.

In police circles it was looked upon as certain that ne would be dismissed, but the late Thomas Carroll, who was at that time Police Commissioner, had a soft heart, and out of sympathy restored him to the command of his precinct.

sympathy restored him to the command of his precinct.

Five years ago, on Dec. 19 he resigned, after having been missing for several days.

He was at that time Chief of the Central Office Squad, and when he turned, rather than face a trial he resigned.

It was not until some time afterwards that he was taken back, and on June 10, 1884, he was appointed to a vacant captainey.

At other times he has been missing for a day or so, but nothing ever came of it.

Capt. Jewett is tall and well-built and has short gray hair. He is forty-five years old and during the war served with Company H, Third New York Volunteers. He was appointed police drill captain in 1878.

He was promoted to the position of Inspector on April I, 1882, but resigned on March 11, 1883. One month later he was taken back on the force.

11, 1883. One month later he was taken back on the force.

During his career on the force he has been on trial on five different occasions—three for neglect of duty and twice for violating rules.

WILL NOT COMMIT CHILDREN.

The City Court Judges Stand Firm in Spite of Fervid Protesta.

The Ladies Deborah Nursery and the Hebrew Sheltering Guardian Society and Orphan Asylum to-day appeared by counsel before Judges McAcam, Nehrbas, Browne, Ehrlich and McGown, of the City Court, and protested against resolution recently adopted by the judges by which they decided not to commit children to charitable institutions, but that such applications should be made to the police jus-

J. B. Solomon and Morris Goodhart, rep-J. B. Solomon and Morris Goodhart, representing the societies, moved to vacate the order entered upon the resolution.

Elbridge T. Gerry, on behalf of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, supported the stand taken by the judges. He said he was prepared to prove that more than one-half of the children committed by the judges of the Court ought not to have been committed, and he thought the order a wise exercise of judicial power.

The judges, after hearing the arguments, concluded not to vacate the order.

Passed the Male Nurses' Examination." Out of the seven candidates for positions as male nurses at the new training school for male nurses on East Twenty-sixth street yesterday two have been rejected—one because he was over age and the other for reasons not given. The successful ones are Royal B. Smith, W. J. Searles, of Sing Sing; W. Van Hoesen, of Catskill; J. H. Bell, of Williamsburg, and A. F. Barber, of Tiffton, Pa. They will serve a month's probation at Bellyue, and the male nurse there will then say if they are qualified for regular appointment.

More Obstacles to a Quiet Drink. The Excise Revision Committee to-day had a long and windy discussion on

Dr. Crosby's proposition compelling sakeep of their places open to view from the outside. Mr. Crosby said there should be allowed no screens, no swinging doors to shit out a view of what is going ou inside, no stained glass windows to obscure the vision, and no partitions to hide away those who do not want to be seen drinking.

Two Little Mites Astray. Mrs. Caroline Brown of 347 East Seventyfirst street, found two little children crouched on her doorstep this morning. They were crying bitterly, and could only say that their father and mother had left them there. At the East Sixty-seventh street station they gave their names as Fred and Kate Dedick, aged five and four years respectively, but could give no address. The detectives could get no trace of the parents and the children were turned over to the care of Mr. Gerry's society.

HE HAS GONE OFF ON ANOTHER OF HIS FATAL TERMINATION OF THE MIXING UP AND DETECTIVE PATTERSON SAW HIS OF PRESCRIPTIONS.

> Johnny O'Connor, Aged Four Years, Dies in Fearful Agony After Taking the Wrong Medicine - Jersey City Has Another Am Endi Sensation-An Investigation Is New in Progress by the Coroner Physician.

Through the wrong delivery of the proscriptions in Jersey City which had been ordered by different physicians, a four-yearold boy died last night after suffering horrible agonies caused by taking medicine which had been intended for a person suffering from an entirely different disease. William D. O'Connor lives with his wife and one child, John, at 287 Magnolia avenue, Jersey City.

Johnny was only four years old, and had been suffering for several weeks by a combination of croup and other infantile troubles.

Dr. L. G. Good, of No. 257 Tonnell aveue, was called in and has been attending Yesterday afternoon the doctor called, as usual, and after examining the little fellow wrote a prescription. It was taken to Eugene Harkness's drug store at the corner of Montgomery and Warren streets, Jersey City, to be filled.

The druggist was instructed to deliver the medicine at the house as soon as it was compounded.

About that time another prescription was sent to the drug store, with the same instructions as to being delivered.

The two prescriptions were of a widely different nature, one of them being highly poisonous.

In some unexplained manner, the bottle in-tended for Dr. McClure's patient went to the house of the O'Connors, and Dr. Good's medicine was duly received by the other sick medicine was duly received by the other sick person.

A dose of the wrong medicine was given to little Johnny O'Connor last night, and he immediately became very sick.

As the time passed he became worse, suffering untold agony. After undergoing indescribable pain, he finally succumbed, dying at a late hour in the night.

The O'Connors notified Dr. Good, and then the Coroner's Physician was notified.

He will hold an inquest and make a thorough investigation to determine who is responsible for the horrible catastrophe.

An Evenno World reporter called at the druggist's this morning. It is one of the largest and is looked upon as the principal apothecary shops in Jersey City.

When questioned about the mistake the druggist declined to give any information whatever.

whatever, While THE EVENING WORLD man was in the while The Evening World man wash the store Mrs. O'Connor came in and demanded an explanation.

The druggist declined to make any, saying that an investigation would be made, and if there was any criminal responsibility in the matter, it would be revealed and brought to justice.

LAWYER COLLES PULLED UP.

Bad Ending to His Acquaintance with Mrs. Worthman.

George W. Colles, a gray-haired lawyer, 52 ears old and residing in Morristown, N. J., is locked up in the Tombs Prison, charged by Mrs. Lotta Worthman, of 448 East Seventysecond street with obtaining about $7,000 from her and then refusing to pay up.

Mrs. Worthman claims that she has conclusive proof in receipts which she shows for the above amount.

tation, and he charges that she compelled him to sign the receipts at the muzzle of a loaded revolver. His statement, as given to Justice Reilly in the Tombs Police Court, is

"Yes, Your Honor, these receipts are all in my handwriting. I admit that they show that I am indebted to Lotta Worthman several thousand dollars. " But God knows I speak the truth when I say that I never received a penny from the woman in my life. Indeed, she owes me woman in my life, indeed, she owes me quite a considerable sum. She had me in her power with a revolver levelled at my head and compelled me to sit down and write all these receipts as she dictated them. "I then handed them to her and she has kept them for three years until now, and because I refused to pay money I never obtained from her she had me arrested.

"Oh! what a maduan I must have been! I had my reputation to look after, and that is why I did nothing. The disgrace would have killed me.
'I regret now that I didn't let her kill me before I signed those receipts."

This statement was delivered in dramatic style, and the prisoner buried his face in his hands and sobbed aloud.

But there is another side of the case.

According to Mis. Worthman's statement to an Evening World reporter this morning, Colles had lived with her off and on for three "Do I look as though I needed to black-

The reporter glanced around the neat, tidy parlor and then at Mrs. Worthman, who was plainly but richly dressed.

Town this house, "she continued, "and am not forced to blackmail any one to earn a living.

am not forced to blackmail any one to carn a living.

"Do you suppose that if I did want to do this thing that I would select a lawyer without money to work upon?"

"Not much. I can show by my bank-book and checks which are filled out in his own handwriting that I loaned him the money.

"I always thought him a trustworthy, honest man, until when I saked him for my money and he laughed in my face. He told me I could get it quicker by waiting on his convenience than by going to law.

"I admit I have a revolver, but he brought it up here himself one day after an attempted burglary on my house."

"He has transacted all my business. Why, he asserts that I never loaned him a cent. I gave him $1.500 to pay off a mortgage on his house in Morristown, N. J., and that fact, duly recorded in the County Clerk's office, will prove that I did."

Colles swears that his statement is true. He is said to be highly connected and a regu-

Colles swears that his statement is true. He is said to be highly connected and a reguar attendant at church.
His examination will be held in the Tombs Court late this afternoon. He failed to find ball and spent the night in

Mgr. Macchi a Cardinal. (BY CABLE TO THE PRESS BINS ASSOCIATION.)
ROMB, Dec. 27.—Mgr. Macchi has been created cardinal.

Do you want a good dinner in the evening, with the best wines? If so go to MOUGUIN RESTAURANT & WINE CO., Folion and Ann sta. "."

WHERE IS CAPT. JEWETT? IT KILLED THE BOY PATIENT. FREDDIE GEBHARD SLEPT. ALL-AMERICA WINS

LONG-AWAITED OPPOPTUNITY. That Little Bill of 898 for Mrs. Langtry's

Louis XVI. Screen was Fifteen Months Overdue and Freddy Has Cleverly Escaned Service of the Summons-Caught at Last in His Carriage. Freddy Gebhard is in a peck of trouble.

At the ferry-house door at East Twentythird street last evening Private Detective J. C. Patterson suddenly pulled open the door of the coupe wherem Mrs. Langtry and Gebhard were making their way to the Lee Avenue Opera-House, Williamsburg.

The detective stuffed a legal document into the astonished Freddy's hands as the latter was enjoying a deep, sweet sleep. The Jersey Lily was in a similar condition, and reclining her beautiful head on the cushions.

The document was a summons issued by Lawyer John Henry Hull, of 200 Broadway, in behalf of his client, Mr. Arthur H. Lam-son, manager of R. G. Dunlap's downtown Store.

The detective closed the door, and by the faint, flickering light of the carriage-lamps the scion of a noble race read that he was allowed twenty days in which to explain why he should not pay $98 to Mr. Lamson.

Until last March Mr. Lamson was Edgar S. Allien's partner in the fancy furniture and bric-a-brac business at 178 Fifth avenue. Mr. Lamson then retired, and in the settlement that ensued Mr. Lamson was awarded the firm's claim against Mr. Gebhard.

On Oct. 6, 1887, according to Mr. Allien, Mrs. Langtry and Mr. Gebhard entered the store.

All angery and Mr. Gebhard entered the store.

"Oh, Fred, what a beautiful screen. How I should like to present it to my friend Mrs. Baron Blane for Christmas."

"You know, dearest," responded the evergaliant Freddy, "that you have but to make a wish, and if it is in my power it shall be gratified. Of course, the screen is yours to do what you please with.

"Charge this screen and the bonbonniere out it one," he said, turning to the sales."

on it to me," he said, turning to the sales; on it to me," he said, turning to the sales; man.

The bonbonniere Mrs. Langtry appropriated for herself, and carried away in her own lovely hands. The screen, a beautiful Louis XVI. Verouis Martin, was left in the store until near Christmas, when Mr. Gebhard's lackey came in and ordered it sent to Mrs. Baron Blanc, 16 West Twenty-third street.

The bill for the goods was faithfully sent on the 1st of each month to Mr. Gebhard. He paid no attention to it further than to reply to them in neatly worded notes, saying he would be around shortly, &c., &c., fatuous promises which both the sender and recipients knew were made never to be fulfilled.

When fifteen minutes had gone by Mr.

to be fulfilled.

When fifteen minutes had gone by Mr.
Lawson vowed he would collect his little bill in spite of the suave evasions of the slippery sprig of fashion. He started Sheriff Hugh J. Grant's deputies at trying to serve summonses upon the delinqueat.

They were smart, but Freddy was still smarter. They could never lay hands on him. He flitted hither and thither, always him. He flitted hither and thither, always beyond their reach.

When Mr. Gebhard went to Europe last September the deputies thought they had their prey sure, but when they laid hands on him on the steamer just prior to her leaving the dock, he told them he was Frederick Brown and not Gebhard. It was all a mistake. Unless "Freddy" files an answer to the summons before twenty days a sheriff will be deputed to serve an execution. If this does not bring a settlement of the claim then an order from the Supreme Court calling upon Freddy to present himself in Supreme Court Chambers will be issued and he will have to appear there forthwith and give an account appear there forthwith and give an account of his financial standing.

The Day in Wall Street. their meetings to-day, and the following dividends were declared: 3 per cent: on Lake Shore, dends were declared: 3 per cents on Lake Shore, which is 1 per cent, more than was paid for the previous six months, the Michigan Central 2 per cent, the Canada Southern 1½ per cent, and the New York Central 1 per cent, the C. C. C. & I. 1½ per cent. The latter payment is for the current quarter, while the others are for the laff year. The New York Central directors voted in favor of desiring an extra dividend in 1839 if the carnings justify its payment.

All the Vanderbilt stocks were strong to-day, while the Grangers exhibited weakness and declined.

There was a break of several points in Amerian Cotton Oil Certificates, on the prospect of egislation adverse to all kinds of "Trusts." THE QUOTATIONS.

Open. High, Lon.

	American Cotton Oil	5:334	0334	50%
	Atch., Topeka & Santa Fe	50	59	- 5554
	Canada Southern Clove. Col. Cin & Ind. Chicago Gas Trust.	5846	27	22376
	Clove. Col., Cin. & Ind.,	3847	384	58%
	Chicago Cas Trust	1109	11004	110
		46	46	210
	Char, & Angusta Uhicago & Northwest	10836	108%	10836
	Clinerate Mil A St. Pani	0356	0.364	1111778
	Cincago, Mil. 4 St. Paul Cincago, Mil. 4 St. Paul prd	104	10417	10334
	"Chicago, Bock Island & Pacific	208	DR	17752
	Chicago & Cantero Illinois	4:144	4:544	4917
	Chicago & Eastern Illinois Chicago & Eastern Illinois pfd.	Dit	90	10.714
	Cin . Ind . St. Louis & Chicago	10334	11.184	1374
	Cin., Ind., St. Louis & Chicago Cameron Cual	25%	2534	2544
	Col A Gocking Valley	25%	22.170	2514
	Delaware, Lackawanna & Western	143%	144	143
	Delaware & Hudson	13124	13194	131
	Lake Shore	104	10456	103%
	Lake Erie & Western Lake Erie & Western pfd	17.29	3.779	11.
	Lake Erio & Western pro	57.55	22.79	97276
	Louisville & Nashville	27.74	200	2229
	Machattan Consol	8686	NRM	1335.6
	Managan Cantral		7.774	27
	Nash Chatt & St. L.	84	64 m	41
	New York Central	10856	100%	10856
	N V & Now Powland	41229	4.1	49
ļ	N. Y. Chicago a ht. Louis N. Y. Lake Eris & Western	1717	1734	1714
	N V Lake Erie & Western	2247	22752	2752
	N. Y., Lake Eric & Western pfd.	100000	41:244	6947
	Norrolk & Western pfd.	50%	50%	50%
	Northern Pacific	2544	25%	2547
	Northern Pagific pfd	50%	60	5004
	Otto & Musicalppi	224	32374	22774
	Ortario & Western Oregon Transcontinental	1534	1024	1,924
	Oregon Transcentmental	30%	3017	30%
	Oregon Improvement	7194	1.94	34
	Oregon Short Line	3046	3596	33375
	Pacific Mail	NNS	250	3183
l	Philadelphia & Reading	4054	4176	2029
	Puliman Palace Car Co 1	7316	17357	17:02
	Quicksilver old	30	36	38
	Quicksilver pfd. Rich. & West Point Ter. Rich. & West Point Ter. pfd	25%	2546	2.5
	Rich & West Point Ter. pfd	80	80	80
	St. Paul & Omaha	33	3316	3:236
	St. Paul & Omaha pld	97	197	95
	St. Paul, Minn. & Manitoba	99%	19946	1994
	St. Louis & San Francisco	2056	12(13)	25034
	St. Louis & San Fran. pfd	57.9h	117.7%	12/26
	Tenn. Coal & Iron. Tenn. Coal & Iron. Tenn. Coal & Iron pfd	350	330	2274
	Tenn. Coal & Iron	227	11213	17275
	Union Parific	120	21.4.52	2775
	Union Pacific. Wab., St. Louis & Pacific pfd	37,07	35.0	3333
	Western Union Telegraph	NASA	8442	NIM
	Wheeling & Lake Erie	60	60	Stell
	* Fr Airidand	1876	-	474779

Scared by the Array of Witnesser

The suit of Lawyer Morrison, ex-Secretary the Home and Country Protective Brotherhood, against the Rev. C. P. McCarthy and William Robinson. Chairman of the Investigation Committee of the above Society. For libel was called in Justice Massey's Court in Brooklyn this morning, but the Justice on seeing sixty-four witnesses appear for each side, adjourned the hearing.

Vice-President Lynch's Stolen Mure. Vice-President Lynch, of the Christopher Street Bailroad Company, to-day had John Clo-Street Raurosa Company, to-day had John Clo-hosy, of Laurel Hill, L. I., arrested on a charge of stealing his $600 mare from the company's sta-ble on the night of Sept. 17. Clohesy was driv-ing the horse when arrested, but said he bought t of a man for $150. He was held for trial.

HAS SHE KILLED HERSELF?

Anson Beaten Four Games Out of the Five Played.

Mutrie Thinks Crane Is the Man Who Does the Business.

street, Brooklyn, last Sunday morning, has Mike Kelly Says Anson Is Not a Good Catcher.

Record of Cames Played in Australia.

pyright, 1888, by the Press Publishing Company (New York World).

ISPECIAL CABLE DESPATCH TO THE WORLD. 1 ADELAIDE, SOUTH AUSTRALIA, Dec. 26.-The American baseball players arrived here yesterday and to-day played a game in the their unfortunate sister has bowed them down presence of a big crowd. The result was :

All-America..... 19

In conversation with an Evenino World reporter this morning, Manager Mutrie said:

''All I care about the Austrahan venture is the success of Ed Crane. I knew he was a great pitcher when I got him and I never had any reason to change my mind. Watch his work against Anson now. He is winning game after game and has been hit hard but once.

'You may put down that 'around-the-world' scheme as telegraphed to Tak World by Ward as bosh. Scalding is too shrewd to attempt it. He will have his fill of advertising without visiting Europe, and that's all he wants. I can't understand the reports which state that Anson is jealous of Ward. I think Anson is too good a player and knows his worth too much to show any feeling against Ward. Ward is, of course, a fine player and, under certain intermistances a good cautain but he has much to show any feeling against Ward. Ward is, of course, a fine player and, under certain circumstances a good captain, but he has himself often referred to Anson as an example of baseball generalship to be closely followed. Anse is probably sore over his many defeats, and perhaps in his gruff way shown it, but that he is jealous of All-America's captain because All-America wins I don't believe.

"The secret of the victories seems to be

The secret of the victories seems to be "The secret of the victories seems to be the pitching of Ed Crane."

Mike Kelly, who, by the way, says he will be high-cock-a-lorum of the Hoston team next season, says: "The All-America team ought to win. Look at the Chicago battery—Baldwin and Anson, Why, Anson couldn't catch a train if he started now and had until to-morrow morning."

> Baseball in Hayana [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

HAVANA, Cuba, via Key West, Dec. 27. -A team of American ball players arrived here Saturday and on Christmas Day defeated the Havana Club by a score of 9 to 5. A large crowd witnessed the play, McMahon and Collins formed the American

THE SIXTH'S SENATORSHIP.

Tom Grady Opposed by Citizens and Republicans. Ex-Senator Thomas F. Grady, the United Democratic nominee for the Sixth's Senatorship, is not likely to have the big walk-over that he expected.

by 4 P. M. the fight will be decided. The Republicans had given it out all along that they would not put a candidate in nomination. But Mr. Grady is not more popular than the law allows, his desertion in 1884, when he stumped for Ben Butler, making him many he stumped for Ben Butler, making him many enemies. These now claim that he was work ing in the interest of Mr. Blaine.

This and other reasons brought about a conference between some of the Sixth's independent citizens, who made a proposition to the Republicans that if they would put up a good man for the office the Independents would support him.

So last night the Republicans nominated Mr. Charles L. Halberstadt, a lawyer at 25 Chambers street.

Chambers street.

Mr. Halberstadt is quite popular in the Twelfth Assembly District, and his friends say that there is a big chance of his election. An amusing feature of this little campaign is the nomination of another Mr. Thomas Grady, who is in the envelope business, by some of his Republican friends. The nomi-nation was probably jutended as a first-class political joke.

SUNK IN THE BAY OF BISCAY. The British Steamer Storm Overs Goes Down-Six Lives Were Lost. [BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.] London, Dec. 27 .- The British steamer

Storm Queen has foundered in the Bay of The captain and five other persons were

The Philadelphia Murdered Man Identified. The victim of the Philadelphia murder mystery has been identified.

Mrs. Kobler, of Hoboken, says he was A Patriarchs' Ball.

[Clara Belle's Letter to Philadelphia Press.]

aspect from other well-dressed dancing occa-

Wherein does a Patriarchs' ball differ in George Hazleton. Hazleton formerly boarded with her.

sions? Not in any essential particular. The ball-room at Delmonico's, when filled with an assemblage whose women are in fine toilets, prosents a handsome spectacle. There is more than an hour of round dancing before suppor is announced and then comes a scramble such as everywhere, upon all sorts of occasions, characterizes the most cultured of men and women as animals who like to eat and drink. Supper is served at small tables that are placed very numerously in the restaurant, the hallways and even in the passages that lead to the public cafe. The viands are very good indeed, comprising the items usually found on a Delmonico bill of fare, beginning with oysters and soup, including several kinds of choice game, ending with icos and permeated liberally with wine. A little claret is drunk and a vast deal of champague, the latter being opened as fast and as assemblage whose women are in fine toilets. pagne, the latter being opened as fast and as long as there is any demand for it.

SCHOONMAKER'S PARAMOUR DISAPPEARS FROM BROOKLYN.

Her Two Brothers in Town Looking for Her-The Murdered Wife's Body at the House of a Relative Schoonmaker Proven to Be an Unmitigated Scamp-His Gitts to Mamie Wood. Mamie Wood, the young girl who voluntarily made public her scandalous relations with Harry Schoonmaker, the young man who shot his wife and himself at 69 Bond disappeared, and her relatives fear that she has committed suicide. Two of her brothers, upon reading the published story of her disgrace yesterday morning, came from their country home, near Newburg, on the Hudson, to look after

They went to Mrs. Patterson's house at 262 Carlton avenue, Brooklyn, where she had been stopping, last night, only to find that she had gone, leaving no due to her where-

They are very respectable young men, and the shame that has come upon them through with grief.
The girl left every little trinket she possessed behind her, except the silver chate-Chicago 14 laine watch which Schoonmaker gave her when returning from their eventful trip to Asbury Park. It was inscribed, "Harry, 1887," and be told ber during a subsequent interview that it was given to him by a woman who would never have the laugh on him. He also gave her a ring, she told Mrs.

' It was his wife's wedding ring. See how much he loves me." She did not show the ring. Mrs. Patterson told an Evening World eporter this morning that in case she should not be heard of to-day, detectives would be engaged to look for her. A friend of the family doubted that she had made way with herself. He said : "I am afraid she has done something orse than committing suicide. The girl by her own confession has blasted her life and ruined her reputation. She has not the spirit to live the scandal down and make a better woman of herself. I think she will be next heard of in some place of doubtful char-next heard of in some place of doubtful character.

Patterson, with the remark :

Death mercifully ended the sufferings of unfortunate Mrs. Schoonmaker in the Long Island College Hospital yesterday afternoon. She was not taken to her father's home at 14 Third street, as has been stated.

The reason why, the father told Thir Eventual World reporter this morning:

"If we brought her home," he said, "I fear a mob of curious people would throng the house, and that would just drive my women folks crazy. My poor girl's body is now in her coffin at the house of a relative here in Brooklyn."

now in her coffin at the house of a relative here in Brooklyn."

"When will she be buried?"

"May be to-morrow, but the funeral may be deferred until Saturday. We have not completed arrangements for the end yet. Some of our relatives out of town want to be present, and for that reason the funeral may not take place until Saturday." he concluded.

While he was speaking, his wife, a pleasant motherly looking lady, stood by crying bit-motherly looking lady, stood by crying bitterly.

A young girl, also weeping, dandled the poor little fourteen-months-old baby of the Schoonmakers' on her lap.

The innocent orphan crowed and clapped its little hands with delight when the reporter chucked him under the chin.

If possible the terrible tragedy that deprived him of father and mother will be kept secret. When old enough to understand he will be informed that father and mother died suddenly when he was a baby.

Proof is constantly accumulating to show that Schoonmaker was a heartless scamp.

He ill-treated his wife almost constantly of late. He claimed that he was only receiving 312 a week when he was really getting $15.

On the piea of poverty he was constantly of late. He claimed that he was constantly of late. If possible the two thirteens for a number he needed to late. He claimed that he was constantly of late. He claimed that he was constantly of late. He claimed that he was constantly of late. He poverty he was constantly of late and the late probably would have been the death of me if I hadn't turned the blamed thing around and so brought you to the received. On the plea of poverty he was constantly receiving financial assistance from his father-n-law, Mr. Magnus. This he spent on himself and his pleasures.

His wife loyally shielded him and never complained.

About three years ago he was employed as a clerk in the Water Department. His fellow-clerks did not care for him much. He was too much of a dude, and a boy in his actions.

While there he passed a forged check on Baldwin, the clothier, in payment for a suit of clothes. of clothes. of clothes.

He was spared arrest by his father, who made the check good, but the matter led to his dismissal by Water Purveyor Hawkes.

Schoommaker was buried in Haverstraw yeaterday. The body was attired in a dress suit which he had redeemed for the purpose snit which he had redeemed for the purpose at Henney's pawnshop, on Atlantic avenue, yesterday a week ago.

Mamie Wood was with him when he got it out. She waited for him in a doorway near by. They went to a saloon afterwards, and he showed her the clothes, saying:

"When I kill myself I want these duds to be buried in. I don't want my wife to have any trouble planting me."

any trouble planting me."

The same time be redeemed a gold watch and a revolver, paying for all $21. He seemed to be well supplied with money that day, but he was broke the following Saturday.

He went into a cigar store near his house and borrowed 10 cents to get to New York and borrowed 10 cents to get to New York with. He returned the loan in the evening.

saying: ... I have money enough now to last me as long as I live."

If a was dead before another twenty-four hours rolled around.

Young men who knew him well say that he was always a favorite with women, and that he was a born gambler, but not fond of druking.

drinking.

The police in Brooklyn are wendering if Mamie Wood was ever known as Middleton. They say they are well acquainted with a girl of that name, who used to patrol Fulton and other Brooklyn thoroughfares in search of chance acquaintances a couple of years ago.

Clifton Entries for To-Morrow. INPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD I CLIPTON HACE THACK, N. J., Dec. 27.—The programme and entries at Clifton for Friday, Dec. 28, are as follows:

Dec. 28, are as follows:

First Race—Purse $250; six and one-half furlongs; selling allowances.—Bishop, 118; Wayward, 112; Sir Roderick, 110; Marsh Redon, 106; J. J. Healy, 106; Vitello, 102; Woodstock, 101; Songster, 100; Mazle, 97; lb.

Second Race—Purse $250; six and one-half furlongs; selling allowances.—Harrodsburg, 112; Richelburg, 112; Alice, 109; Volatile, 109; Martie Looran, 107; Pegasis, 104; Can't Toll, 104; Alex T., 102; lb.

Third Race—Purse $250; three-quarters of a mile—selling allowances.—Futurity, 105; John Arkins, 105; He, 107; Ida Bell, 100; lb.

Fourth Race—Purse $250; seven-eighths of a mile,—Specialty, 115; Anomaly, 115; Mazle, 115; Golden Red, 115; Woodstock, 115; Mazle, 115; Golden Red, 116; Woodstock, 115; D. Halson, 106; Requiman, 108; Brynecod, 109; Halson, 106; Rouveniz, 95; Hermitage, 90; Hong George, 90, 10.

An Outrage to an American Ship at Porto Rico.

Secretary Bayard Asked to Give the Matter Prompt Attention.

Shall the Galena and Yantic be Sent to Demand Redress?

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 27.—The brigantine Josefa, which has arrived at this port from Montego Bay, Jamaica, suffered an outrage at the hands of the Spanish Govern-

While discharging cargo on her outward rip from New York at Arroyo, Porto Rico, the Spanish customs officials discovered that twenty packages of cornstarch which were marked on the vessel's manifest were missing. After extended search the goods could not be found, and the vessel was seized by the Spanish authorities, who held her until a fine of $4,000 was paid, although the value of the goods in question did not exceed $20.

The master and crew were obliged to suffer many indignities at the hands of the Governor of the island and officials acting under his authority.

The authorities offered to settle the matter if the captain of the vessel could satisfactorily explain the whereabouts of the missing packages.

After the fine had been paid it was ascertained that the missing goods were delivered by mistake on board the ship Josephus, which lay next to the Josefa in New York, but were placed on the Josefa's manifest.

Explanations were made to the Spanish authorities, and the return of the fare was requested, but was refused, and the vessel left Porto Rico to load cargo elsewhere for this city.

oity.

The owner of the Josefa has filed a complaint against the Spanish Government with Secretary Bayard, and it asked that his im mediate attention be called to the matter. It will be urged that the war ships Galena and Yantic shall be ordered back to continue their cruise to Porto Rico, and summarily secure redress for the imposition suffered by the Josefa.

MUTRIE'S DOUBLY UNLUCKY HAT. Not Even a Giant Can Bear Up Under One with 1313 for a Number.

While the rain of this morning was pouring down most heavily an Evening World reporter, from underneath a family umbrella, caught sight of James Mutrie, the well-knows manager of the New York Giants. Jim didn't have even an apology of an his well-combed locks from the wetness of umbrella, and the only thing which protected

And Jim gurgled out a laugh, and freeing his cost collar from another man's umbrella, managed to give information of his destina-tion. He was "just going to Philadelphia." "What for?" "What for?"

"Oh, nothing much: just for a little trip,"
"Oh, nothing much: just for a little trip," "Oh, mothing much; just for a little trip," and Jim began again on the weather, and Australia, and everything else except the engagement of ball-tossers for this town. When the Cortlandt street ferry was reached he sought to buy an excursion ticket with "stop-over" privileges. Not able to work that, he paid full rates and confessed to a desire to visit

Princeton.
What for i' asked the reporter. What for ? asked the reporter.

"You promise not to print it?" cautiously queried Jim, and receiving a satisfactory answer, he put his mouth close to his questioner's ear and in a mysterious whisper said: "To buy an umberel"; thanks for With that gentle Jeems disappeared,

PARSONS IS FOUND GUILTY.

The White Slave-Driver Dazed at the Resuit of His Trial. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Dec. 27.—The jury in the Parsons white slave case returned a verdict of guilty after being out only an hour.

Parsons, the convicted man, seemed dazed at the verdict. He will be sentenced this Held for Reckless Driving. Michael Hoeppner, who keeps a saloon at 46 Division street, was held in $500 bail at the efferson Market Court to-day on a charge of reckless driving on Ninth avenue last night, he having knocked down and hurt Mrs. Catharine Flannigan, of 354 West Twenty-fifth street.

Rainy and Colder Weather.

Weather indications. For Eastern New York -Rain; colder; winds

The Weather To-Day. Indicated by Blakely's tele-thermometer:
1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1887, 1888, 1

Average for the past twenty-four hours, 50 7-9 degrees.
Average for curresponding time-last year, 30 5-9 de-
